

Jaime Canaves, IIDA, FAIA, Lead Juror
Professor, Florida International University
Principal Jaime Canaves, FAIA, IIDA

Jaime is an architect, interior designer and professor at Florida International University. He is the founder of Bienal Miami+Beach a recurring international design competition. With over thirty years of experience Jaime has received numerous national and international awards for his work including recognition from ASID, IIDA, AIA and IDEC. He is also past president of the Florida Chapter of IIDA.

Marlene M. Liriano, IIDA, LEED®AP ID+C
Principal, Interior Design Director
Perkins+Will

Marlene joined the Perkins+Will Miami team in 2001. With over 25 years of experience, she has served as Interior Design Principal on notable and award winning projects nationally and internationally. Marlene received her Bachelor's degree from Florida International University, is a registered interior designer as well as a LEED accredited professional. She is highly regarded by her clients and peers, and in 2006, the Miami Chapter of the American Institute of Architects honored her with the Interior Designer of the Year Award. Marlene is a Principal with the firm and also serves as the discipline leader for Interiors for the Miami office.

MICHAEL WOLK

Michael Wolk is the founder and creative director Michael Wolk Design Associates. After graduating from Pratt Institute, he worked on John Lennon's and Yoko Ono's Joko Recording studio in Soho. Michael has established a name for himself among the most prestigious clients covering multiple disciplines, including The Related Group, Deyer/Trump Developers, Sony, Lionstone Development Corporation and Goldman Properties. The firm's numerous accolades run the gamut from the ASID International Product Design Award, AIA Interior Designer of the Year, grand prizes in numerous Florida Style Furniture Design Competitions to BASF Fame Awards, ASFD Pinnacle Awards, the DCOTA Stars of Design Award for Best Product Designer, and the American Corporate Identity Award for Excellence.

Marta Canavés ASLA, IIDA is chair of Landscape Architecture and an interdisciplinary design professor for the School of Architecture at Florida International University. Her degrees include a Bachelor of Design and a Master in Landscape Architecture. With an academic experience of 20 years she has received a 2003 Faculty Senate Excellence in Teaching Award. Her recent professional work includes low-cost rural housing in eastern Kentucky, urban infill and infrastructure for Smoketown / Shelby Park, Kentucky, infill housing for Little Haiti, Miami, Florida and an invitation to exhibit and present at the International Architecture Biennale Rotterdam. As a licensed interior designer she has received awards from AIA Miami, IDG, and the International Interior Design Association.

Mario Echeverria, IIDA
Principal, Echeverria Design Group

Mario founded The Echevarria Design Group in 1982 and now it is the largest Miami-Dade County firm specializing in retail design. Mario is a professional member of the Institute of Store Planners (ISP) and the International Interior Design Association (IIDA). Nationally known for his commercial and retail work Mario has received recognition from ASID and IIDA for his designs. Additionally EDG has been featured in many industry and consumer publications including Interior Design, Contract Design, Hospitality Design, as well as books such as Stores of the Year and Storefronts & Facades.