

2022-2023 CURRICULUM

10/14/2022 | SESSION ONE: Leadership and Business Etiquette

Hit the ground running – understand your own leadership skills and how they relate to Interior Design.

11/04/2022 | SESSION TWO: Public Speaking and Improvisation

Prepare, Speak, Critique – learn these important skills to improve public speaking. Improvisation can improve your ability to be in the moment and think fast on your feet.

12/02/2022 | SESSION THREE: Management and Entrepreneurship

Learn the basics of running a business and how to manage it and others while understanding how to resolve conflicts and creating win/win situations.

1/06/2023 | SESSION FOUR: Real Estate and Networking

Gain a basic understanding of how real estate transactions differ between sectors and drive the needs and concerns of our clients, and learn how to leverage the benefits of networking and make new connections.

2/03/2023 | SESSION FIVE: Advocacy and Legislation

Scholars will learn what advocacy for interior design means and how to communicate what designers do to various stakeholders, as well as the importance of diversity and inclusion within the profession.

3/03/2023 | SESSION SIX: Sustainability and Wellness

Understand more about the relationship between human behavior and the physical environment, and the fundamental role of an interior designer and the ethical responsibility to sustain and preserve the health, safety, and wellness of people and the world we live in.

4/1/2023 | SESSION SEVEN: Social Media and Branding

Closing Ceremony to follow (Mandatory attendance required)

Learn how to harness the power of social media to create your own personal brand by connecting with people and clients that will drive impact for long-term business success.